March 18th 2018

Your Christianity: Rational or Irrational? Matthew 5:13-16

Two	r facts about a believer's purpose (13a, 14a)
	t #1 – Believers are the s of the earth (13a)
	The metaphor explained
	a. Jesus is referring to a particular usage of salt - to make food t better
	b. The earth represents u
2.	The metaphor applied
	a. How believers live among the world should never leave a bad taste in the world's mouths
	b. How believers live should add s to their life (being merciful, humble, helpful, interested in their good)
<ul><li>Fac</li></ul>	ts #2 – Believers are the l of the world (14a)
1.	The metaphor explained
	a. Jesus is referring to a particular usage of light – so that people can s
	b. The world represents u
2.	The metaphor applied
	a. The world is in d because of their sin (Jn 3:19)
	b. By living out our relationship to Christ, people may realize that they are in sin and need Christ.
Two	r statements about a believer's actions (13b, 14b)
●Rid	iculous statement #1 – if salt becomes, how can	it be made to salt anything?
1.	The metaphor explained
	a. The group of words (loses its taste, flavor, saltiness) is translated by a single Greek word where we get our word m which is usually translated as foolish (acting contrary to reason)
	b. If salt were to act contrary, it would not salt anything and would be good for n(i.e. useless)
2.	The metaphor applied
	a. Jesus saved us from s (it killed us spiritually and oppressed us)
	b. It would be f (irrational) for Christians to be in harmony with sin.
●Rid	iculous statement #2 – a city on a hill cannot be h
	a. The metaphor explained – a city which is built on a hill is designed to be s

March 18th 2018

relationship to Christ) to o Our Christianity should be evident.  One r conclusion (16)  One more metaphor – lighting a lamp  1. No one lights a lamp and puts it under a b and so did not have any spaces in it for light to pass through b. This action would b the light  2. Everyone lights a lamp and puts it on a stand so that people in the h can see.  Othe metaphor applied - Let your light shine before people like this: that they may see your good works and glorify your heavenly Father.  1. Light refers to g which is simply doing what God w  2. Examples of good works  a. H someone because God wants me to b. P for someone because God wants me to c. Do g to someone because God wants me to d. W to someone because God wants me to e. Unselfishly l my fellow believer.  3. The manner in which we do good works must put the focus on G so that He is glorified, not us.  Conclusion:  Old Irrational Christianity is acting contrary to the way that God has designed you (that's called s or disobedience)  Rational Christianity is acting in accordance to the way that God has designed you (that's called being s and l)		b. The metaphor applied – we are not to keep our Christianity (our
One more metaphor – lighting a lamp  1. No one lights a lamp and puts it under a b
One more metaphor – lighting a lamp  1. No one lights a lamp and puts it under a b	_ <ol> <li>No one lights a lamp and puts it under a b</li></ol>
a. The container was one that held g and so did not have any spaces in it for light to pass through b. This action would b the light  2. Everyone lights a lamp and puts it on a stand so that people in the h can see.  The metaphor applied - Let your light shine before people like this: that they may see your good works and glorify your heavenly Father.  1. Light refers to g which is simply doing what God w  2. Examples of good works  a. H someone because God wants me to b. P for someone because God wants me to c. Do g to someone because God wants me to d. W to someone because God wants me to e. Unselfishly l my fellow believer.  3. The manner in which we do good works must put the focus on G so that He is glorified, not us.  Conclusion:  Irrational Christianity is acting contrary to the way that God has designed you (that's called s or disobedience)  Rational Christianity is acting in accordance to the way that God has designed you (that's called being s and l)
not have any spaces in it for light to pass through b. This action would b the light  2. Everyone lights a lamp and puts it on a stand so that people in the h can see.  The metaphor applied - Let your light shine before people like this: that they may see your good works and glorify your heavenly Father.  1. Light refers to g which is simply doing what God w  2. Examples of good works a. H someone because God wants me to b. P for someone because God wants me to c. Do g to someone because God wants me to d. W to someone because God wants me to e. Unselfishly l my fellow believer.  3. The manner in which we do good works must put the focus on G so that He is glorified, not us.  Conclusion:  Irrational Christianity is acting contrary to the way that God has designed you (that's called s or disobedience)  Rational Christianity is acting in accordance to the way that God has designed you (that's called being s and l)	1.
b. This action would b the light  2. Everyone lights a lamp and puts it on a stand so that people in the h can see.  The metaphor applied - Let your light shine before people like this: that they may see your good works and glorify your heavenly Father.  1. Light refers to g which is simply doing what God w  2. Examples of good works  a. H someone because God wants me to b. P for someone because God wants me to c. Do g to someone because God wants me to d. W to someone because God wants me to e. Unselfishly l my fellow believer.  3. The manner in which we do good works must put the focus on G so that He is glorified, not us.  Conclusion:  Ornclusion:  Irrational Christianity is acting contrary to the way that God has designed you (that's called s or disobedience)  Rational Christianity is acting in accordance to the way that God has designed you (that's called being s and l) <ol> <li>Everyone lights a lamp and puts it on a stand so that people in the h can see.</li> <li>The metaphor applied - Let your light shine before people like this: that they may see your good works and glorify your heavenly Father.</li> <li>Light refers to g which is simply doing what God w</li> <li>Examples of good works         <ul> <li>a. H someone because God wants me to</li> <li>b. P for someone because God wants me to</li> <li>c. Do g to someone because God wants me to</li> <li>d. W my fellow believer.</li> </ul> </li> <li>The manner in which we do good works must put the focus on G so that He is glorified, not us.</li> <li>Conclusion:         <ul> <li>Irrational Christianity is acting contrary to the way that God has designed you (that's called s or disobedience)</li> <li>Rational Christianity is acting in accordance to the way that God has designed you (that's called being s and l)</li> </ul> </li></ol>		• • • • •
h can see.  The metaphor applied - Let your light shine before people like this: that they may see your good works and glorify your heavenly Father.  1. Light refers to g which is simply doing what God w  2. Examples of good works  a. H someone because God wants me to  b. P for someone because God wants me to  c. Do g to someone because God wants me to  d. W to someone because God wants me to  e. Unselfishly l my fellow believer.  3. The manner in which we do good works must put the focus on  G so that He is glorified, not us.  Conclusion:  Irrational Christianity is acting contrary to the way that God has designed you (that's called s or disobedience)  Rational Christianity is acting in accordance to the way that God has designed you (that's called being s and l)	_	b. This action would b the light
The metaphor applied - Let your light shine before people like this: that they may see your good works and glorify your heavenly Father.  1. Light refers to g	2.
they may see your good works and glorify your heavenly Father.  1. Light refers to g which is simply doing what God w  2. Examples of good works  a. H someone because God wants me to  b. P for someone because God wants me to  c. Do g to someone because God wants me to  d. W to someone because God wants me to  e. Unselfishly l my fellow believer.  3. The manner in which we do good works must put the focus on  G so that He is glorified, not us.  Conclusion:  Irrational Christianity is acting contrary to the way that God has designed you (that's called s or disobedience)  Rational Christianity is acting in accordance to the way that God has designed you (that's called being s and l) <ol> <li>Light refers to g which is simply doing what God w</li> <li>Examples of good works         a. H someone because God wants me to         b. P for someone because God wants me to         c. Do g to someone because God wants me to         d. W to someone because God wants me to         e. Unselfishly l my fellow believer.</li> <li>The manner in which we do good works must put the focus on         G so that He is glorified, not us.</li> </ol> Conclusion: <ul> <li>Irrational Christianity is acting contrary to the way that God has designed you (that's called s or disobedience)</li> <li>Rational Christianity is acting in accordance to the way that God has designed you (that's called being s and l)</li> </ul> doing what God w
<ul> <li>2. Examples of good works <ul> <li>a. H</li></ul></li></ul>	1.
<ul> <li>a. H someone because God wants me to</li> <li>b. P for someone because God wants me to</li> <li>c. Do g to someone because God wants me to</li> <li>d. W to someone because God wants me to</li> <li>e. Unselfishly l my fellow believer.</li> <li>3. The manner in which we do good works must put the focus on G so that He is glorified, not us.</li> <li>Conclusion:</li> <li>Irrational Christianity is acting contrary to the way that God has designed you (that's called s or disobedience)</li> <li>Rational Christianity is acting in accordance to the way that God has designed you (that's called being s and l)</li> </ul>
b. P for someone because God wants me to c. Do g to someone because God wants me to d. W to someone because God wants me to e. Unselfishly l my fellow believer.  3. The manner in which we do good works must put the focus on G so that He is glorified, not us.  Conclusion:  Irrational Christianity is acting contrary to the way that God has designed you (that's called s or disobedience)  Rational Christianity is acting in accordance to the way that God has designed you (that's called being s and l)	2.	1 0
c. Do g
d. W		b. P for someone because God wants me to
e. Unselfishly l my fellow believer.  3. The manner in which we do good works must put the focus on G so that He is glorified, not us.  Conclusion:  Irrational Christianity is acting contrary to the way that God has designed you (that's called s or disobedience)  Rational Christianity is acting in accordance to the way that God has designed you (that's called being s and l) <ul> <li>3. The manner in which we do good works must put the focus on G so that He is glorified, not us.</li> <li>Conclusion: <ul> <li>Irrational Christianity is acting contrary to the way that God has designed you (that's called s or disobedience)</li> <li>Rational Christianity is acting in accordance to the way that God has designed you (that's called being s and l)</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
G so that He is glorified, not us.  Conclusion:  ●Irrational Christianity is acting contrary to the way that God has designed you (that's called s or disobedience)  ●Rational Christianity is acting in accordance to the way that God has designed you (that's called being s and l)
Conclusion:  • Irrational Christianity is acting contrary to the way that God has designed you (that's called s or disobedience)  • Rational Christianity is acting in accordance to the way that God has designed you (that's called being s and l)	3.	The manner in which we do good works must put the focus on
<ul> <li>Irrational Christianity is acting contrary to the way that God has designed you (that's called s or disobedience)</li> <li>Rational Christianity is acting in accordance to the way that God has designed you (that's called being s and l)</li> </ul>		G so that He is glorified, not us.
<ul> <li>Irrational Christianity is acting contrary to the way that God has designed you (that's called s or disobedience)</li> <li>Rational Christianity is acting in accordance to the way that God has designed you (that's called being s and l)</li> </ul>	Co	anclusion:
designed you (that's called s or disobedience)  •Rational Christianity is acting in accordance to the way that God has designed you (that's called being s and l) •Rational Christianity is acting in accordance to the way that God has designed you (that's called being s and l) designed you (that's called being s and l)
1. Salt - Do your actions add spice to the life of the unbelievers	1	Salt - Do your actions add spice to the life of the unbelievers around you?	1.
2. Light - Do your actions point people to the Lord?	2.	