

What Believers Will Gain and Escape

Part 2 – What Believers Will Escape

Matthew 25:30-46

Introduction:

● When might someone say:

1. You don't know what you're missing.
2. You don't want to know what you're missing.

● Why does Jesus tell believers about eternal punishment?

1. To let us know from what we are s_____.
2. To enable us to better appreciate the g_____ of eternal life and His love.

The general picture (Matt 25:30-46)

● The scene is the time when Jesus sits on His glorious throne and has gathered before Him all the n_____ (Greek word is ethnos – all ethnic groups) – vv. 31,32

1. He separates everyone into two groups, like a s_____ separates the sheep from the goats – vv. 32,33
2. The sheep represent true b_____
  - a. Jesus the King gives them the full inheritance of the kingdom (right now we only have the kingdom in a s_____ sense) – v. 34
  - b. In the future kingdom, we will not struggle with sin. There will be no sickness, pain, or d_____.
  - c. The earthly life of the true believer will be one of l_____ toward fellow-believers (when you did it to the least of these brothers of Mine, you did it to Me) – vv. 35-40
3. The goats represent un_____ (possibly those who claim or think they are unbelievers but are not)
  - a. Jesus the King tells them that they did not practice l_____ the least of these – vv. 42-45
  - b. They are condemned to eternal f_____ which were originally prepared for the d_____ and his angels (v 41).

● The scene ends with a contrast – v. 46

1. Unbelievers go away into eternal p_____
2. Believers enter into eternal l_____ (in body, soul, and spirit).

The details of the punishment believers will escape

●The punishment is e_____

1. Some cannot fathom a loving God torturing a person for eternity and wrongly teach annihilation – an eternal state of n_____.
2. Some teach the immortality of the s_____, but it is wrong terminology.
  - a. Jesus stated in Matt 10:28 that God will destroy b_____ body and soul in hell (Greek word for hell is gehenna). Therefore, the soul is not immortal.
  - b. Presently, there is only ____ who is immortal (1Tim 6:16), which means that He cannot die.
  - c. Presently, we who believe in Jesus are m_____ (we can die).
  - d. At Christ's coming, only believers will be made immortal (Rom 8:11; 1 Cor 15:53)
    - 1) Before we accepted Christ, we were spiritually d_____ (Eph 2:1)
    - 2) When you accepted Christ, you were made spiritually a_____ (Eph 2:4,5)
    - 3) When you die, your spirit s_____ from your body (Jms 2:26)
      - a) When Jesus's spirit separated from His body, it went to h_____ (1 Pet 3:18,19)
      - b) On the third day His spirit rejoined with His body, thus rising from the d_____.
  - e. On judgment day
    - 1) Everyone, believer and unbeliever will be r_____ from the dead (Jn 5:28,29)
    - 2) The believer will be resurrected to life, but the unbeliever to j_____.

●The place of judgment is the Lake of F_____ (Rev 20:11-15)

1. Two different Greek terms
  - a. Hades (Matt 11:23; 16:18; Lk 10:15; 16:23; Acts 2:27,31; 1 Cor 15:55; Rev 1:18; 6:8; 20:13,14) – this is the place the s_____ of an unbeliever goes at the moment of death.
  - b. Gehenna (Matt 5:22,29,30; 10:28; 18:9; 23:15,33; Mk 9:43,45,47; Lk 12:5; Jms 3:6) – this an unbeliever's f_____ destination and corresponds to the Lake of Fire.

2. Gehenna (the Lake of Fire) is:
  - a. A place where the f_____ is unquenchable (Mk 9:43)
  - b. A place where the whole b_____ goes (Matt 5:30)
where only the spirit goes to Hades (Lk 16:22,23)
  - c. A place where the s_____ will be destroyed or perish (Matt 10:28).
  - d. The second d_____ (Rev 20:14)
    - 1) An unbeliever d_____ physically when the body is burned up – physical death
    - 2) The spirit remains but is s_____ from God forever – spiritual death
3. The unbeliever never l_____ awareness
  - a. Rev 14:11 – they are t_____ day and night and have no rest from that torture.
  - b. There is w_____ and gnashing of teeth (Matt 25:30).
4. Many argue over the symbolism, but the teaching is clear – we will escape a punishment of eternal misery.
  - a. We d_____ this punishment (Rom 3:23; 6:23)
  - b. But we will become immortal in our b_____, soul, and spirit (I Thess 5:23,24).

Conclusion:

- The Bible does not present the doctrine of eternal punishment to s_____ people into believing.
  1. People come to Him because they are d_____ to Him (Jn 6:44).
  2. People come to Christ because they realize how much God l_____ them (Rom 5:8; Jn 3:16).
- The Bible presents the doctrine of eternal punishment to
  1. To show us believers what we have e_____.
  2. And to enable us to l_____ the Lord even more.
- This is my prayer for you – Eph 3:18,19

*I pray that, with all of the saints,
You'd be able to grasp love's breadth,
To grasp its length, also its height,
As well as to grasp its depth.*

*I pray that you would be able
To realize Christ's love instilled
Which surpasses understanding
So with all God's fullness, you're filled.*
